CAMP DIRECTOR

The camp director is Colin Hartnett. Coach Hartnett begins his fifth season as head men's lacrosse coach at Otterbein. The Cardinals have gone 32-33 under Hartnett since the 2010 inaugural season, including a 12-6 campaign in 2013 that ended with the program's first-ever berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

Hartnett came to Otterbein from St. John Fisher College in Pittsford, N.Y. where he had been the assistant coach for the men's lacrosse team since graduating from the College of Wooster in 2003.

In his five years at St. John Fisher, Hartnett helped build a team from the ground up and take it to the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) playoffs three years in a row and to a school best 11-3 record in 2008.

Hartnett, a native of Canandaigua, N.Y, received his Bachelor of Arts in History from Wooster in 2003. He earned four varsity letters in lacrosse, finishing his career as the school's fourth all-time leading scorer. He was a two-time member of the All-NCAC team and served as team captain his junior season.
